Hope everyone had a great long weekend! Here's a little thought on boosting your child's confidence as we enter a new semester:

Thanks for being my kid! Want to boost your middle schooler's self-confidence? Mail him/her a thankyou card telling him/her how proud you are to be his/her parent. List all the things you want for him/her in the future. The note will remind him/her of your love— without embarrassing him/her.

Have a great week! For more information on our school counseling program please visit our web page at <http://www.meigsacademicmagnet.org/school-counseling.html>

SEL for Parents:

"Setbacks, problems and failures are an inevitable part of life. As your teen matures and takes on more challenges, they will experience more frustrations and complications. Teaching your teen resilience – the ability to recover, adapt and keep going – will help them excel in life, both personally and professionally."

PTO NEWS

Green thumb? Garden guru? Flower fanatic?

Keep reading because we need you and your skills!

Meigs PTO is looking to form a Green Thumb Committee to take charge of beautifying our new outdoor classroom with foliage and flowers! This group will be in charge of planning, purchasing, and installing plantings around the new classroom and the bike area. We're looking for volunteers to lead this effort and form the committee, as well as people willing to roll up their sleeves and plant when that time comes. And, don't worry we will have a meeting to talk about what is needed as well as discuss the operating budget. Ready to help out? E-mail Diana Hutson at Meigspto@gmail.com by January 20th.

Merchant Events – Hugh Baby's

Hugh Baby's will be hosting two Meigs days on Tuesday, January 24th and 31st from 1:00 – 8:00 p.m. Join us after school at Hugh Baby's for a quick bite or following the last two home basketball games. However you join us, a portion of your meal will benefit the Meigs PTO. Thanks for supporting Meigs and make sure to mention Meigs when you purchase your meal.
